

DORU VLADIMIR PUȘCAȘU

CEPROCIM S.A Scientific Manager beginning with the year 1992, is graduate of the Faculty of Industrial Chemistry from Polytechnic University Timișoara, promotion 1971; he obtained the title of Doctor Engineer in the year 1986 with the thesis „Considerations about physical and comminutive processes of technological materials from cement industry”.

In 1999 he graduated the Course of Management and International Relations – Scuola di Direzione Aziendale dell'Universita Luigi Bocconi, from Milano and from 2000 he graduated the Course of Management and Strategic Alliances – Polytechnic University Catalunya from Barcelona.

As Scientific Manager coordinate the activity from CEPROCIM SA Research Division.

In the period 1971-1992 in CEPROCIM SA he had the following functions: chemical engineer, chief of grinding collective and Chief of Processes Department.

He developed research activities in cement manufacturing range beginning with the year 1971, had the responsibility for a number of 89 research works, have published 24 works in specialty magazines and participated at 61 scientific communications at Congresses and scientific sessions, is the author of 2 patents. He was director of the Subprogram „Composite materials” in MATNANTECH program from National Plan of Innovation Research Development (2000-2007).